ALMA MATER

Southern Lehigh reaching wide,

On a rolling hillside,

High in purpose, strong in will,

Truth in us instill.

Colors clear of blue and white.

Challenge us to stand a-right;

Alma Mater fair to see,

We will cherish thee.

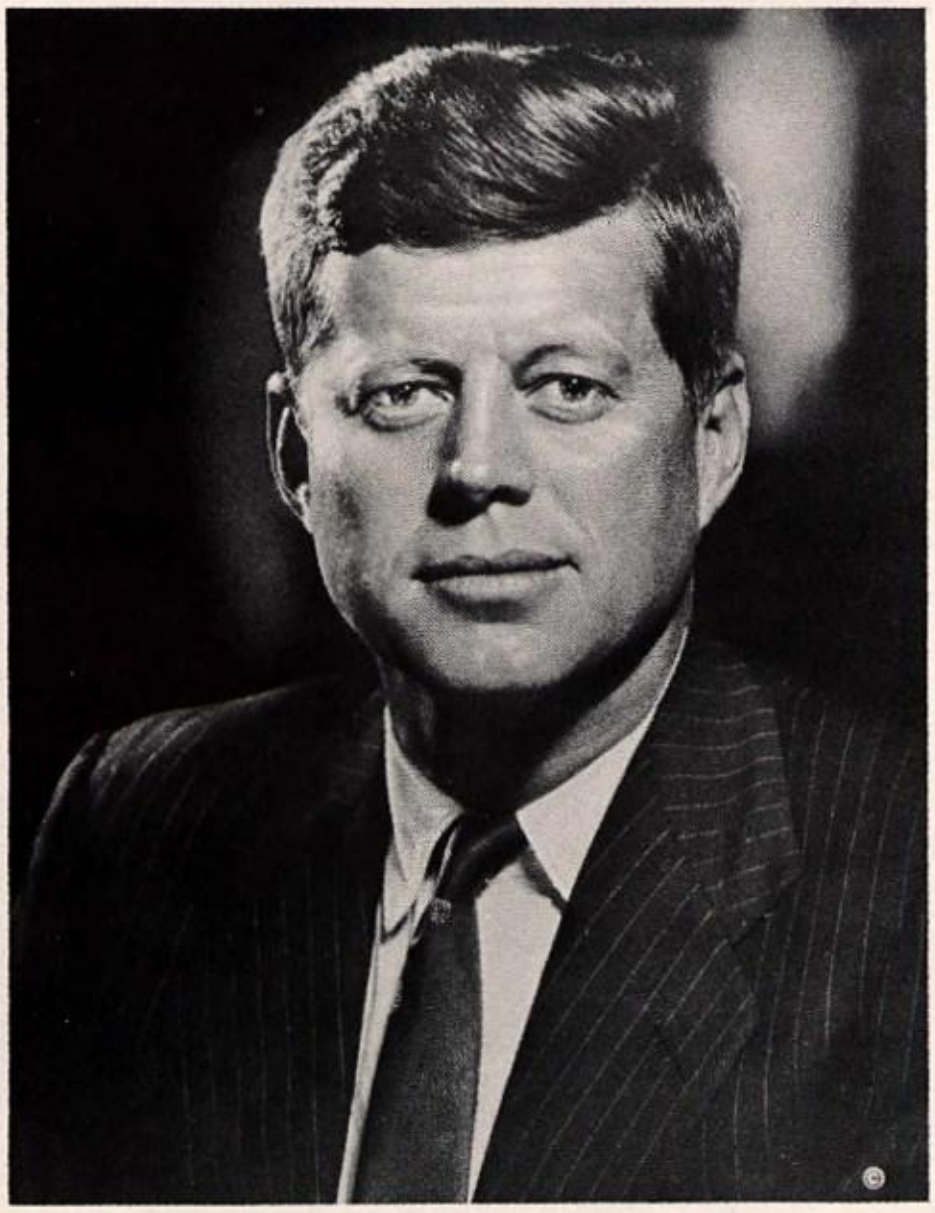
IN MEMORIAM



John Fitzgerald Kennedy

Respect for our country
Ideals to follow
Hope for the future
Faith . . .

These you have given to us - the youth of America. Therefore, rest in the Lord, for though your earthly life be finished, your works shall live on forever!

We are the new generation,
A proud generation,
For our lives have been filled
With great and unparalleled events.
We are especially proud of those
Who have nobly and bravely led us.
President Kennedy,
You were one of these,
And we mourn your passing,
With respect and love
We pay homage to you,
With a final salute to you.

FOREWORD

One might ask why the Senior Class spends time and money every year in the production of a yearbook. It is because those of us who reach this final threshold of our high school lives, wish to leave behind us a record of our activities, a part of ourselves. We hope that this record in paper and ink will help you to recollect that living record which remains in your hearts and minds. In the coming years, if our book proves to be well written, and the "characters" still seem fresh and real, we will have indeed been successful.

However, our work is done and our high school journey is through. We now invite you to walk with us, in memory, down a road upon which we never again shall tread.

DEDICATION

MISS RUSSOPULOS
No one has worked harder for the good of this class than our advisor, Miss Russopulos. She was the woman behind "The Man in the Dog Suit" and her energy and enthusiasm meant success for the prom. In all matters she has been honest with us and has given us encouragement and help. Miss Russopulos, we proudly make this dedication as a way of saying thank you and expressing our deepest gratitude.

MR. PRICE
He advised us when we were uncertain, cheered as when the going got rough, and helped us to meet those impossible deadlines that we thought could never be met. We will always remember Mr. Price with gratitude for helping to make the '64 "Solehian" a reality and a success.
